

SPECIALIST SEXUAL VIOLENCE SUPPORT

Supporting individuals affected by sexual violence or abuse

Specialist one-to-one support for adults and children who have experienced any form of sexual violence, sexual assault or childhood sexual abuse, and who are not currently engaged with the criminal justice system.

Whether you are not ready to report, have chosen not to report, or have previously been through the criminal justice process, we are here to support you in a way that respects your choices and promotes healing and empowerment.

Our Independent Sexual Violence Advisor (ISVA) can support you with:

Health and wellbeing

Informed decision-making

Dealing with daily life

Knowledge & understanding

Feelings of safety

Confidence-building

Such an understanding and compassionate service that's supported me through my journey, giving me the confidence I needed to move forward with my life.

Your choices are respected • Your voice matters
